Chapter II

Academic Process

Article 5. Administrative and Academic Registration

1. Students are obliged to go through administrative and academic registration in order to participate in an academic process before the term starts. The terms of registration are determined with a decree issued by Rector.
2. Administrative registration starts 2 weeks earlier before the term starts and lasts for 3 weeks. Students are obliged to pay at least the third part of term tuition fee during administrative registration, otherwise students can not register and administration is authorized to suspend his/her student status. The remaining fee (2/3 part) must be paid no later than at the end of the 6th week and the full fee – before the end of classes.
3. Academic registration starts 1 week earlier before the term starts and finishes two weeks later after the term starts. During academic registration students register/choose subjects via personal access to university base. Students, not having gone through administrative registration shall not be authorized to have access to the base and go through academic registration.

4. The entrants, enrolled in accordance with the Legislation, go through administrative registration within the terms determined by Rector. They are obliged to submit necessary documents and the receipt, confirming payment of the full term fee.
5. During academic registration a student chooses new academic courses under the framework of the educational programme or the subjects, in which he/she failed previous term, via personal access to the electronic base.
6. Curriculum of the educational programme and a scheme for distributing subjects per term are available in electronic base for every student. Students register for new subjects in compliance with the curriculum.
7. A student is entitled freedom to choose academic courses, lecturers or groups. University facilitates to form the academic schedule so that students have an opportunity to plan a timetable efficiently. In addition, university shall not satisfy students' complaints regarding the following points: in case the number of the students in the group, they wanted to attend classes with, has reached the determined quota; in case choosing a specific lecturer for a student/students is unacceptable if there are no negative assessments regarding his/her teaching and relations with students in students' surveys.

Article 6. Academic Process

1. Students' academic workload includes:
  - a) attending lectures, working in groups, performing practical activities;
  - b) independent work;
  - c) professional practice (internship);
  - d) preparing for/passing exams;
  - e) fulfilling a research component;
  - f) preparing and maintaining Bachelor's thesis;
  - g) preparing and maintaining Master's thesis;
  - h) preparing and maintaining PhD thesis;
2. A credit is used for evaluating students' activities, a unit - used to express the volume of activities to be performed by students for assimilating one subject, depicted in unit of time – hours.
3. According to the credit system, student's academic workload per one academic year includes 60 credits on average. One credit includes 25 hours of student's academic activities (student's workload), which correlates with 1500 hours of academic activities per one academic year.
4. The student enrolled within the framework of mobility or the student with a restored status (except for the students with financial obligation), not being allowed to take subjects correlating with more than 15 credits per term due to the taken and passed subjects within the framework of the educational programme, he/she has to pay the tuition fee in accordance with taken credits.
5. Credits are distributed for every component of educational programme. Credits describe the amount of activities necessary for completing certain components and achieving learning outcomes, in addition they also include the theoretical and practical activities (contact hours) fulfilled by students in an organized environment and independent work performed by students (hours for independent work).
6. Credits cannot be calculated only in accordance with the hours spent in an academic environment (contact hours) by a student with professors/lecturers.
7. Students' academic workload can include no more than 34 credits per term. Due to students' lagged (delayed) academic performance, students' academic activity can be increased up to 42 credits per term with the consent of Faculty Dean provided the fact that annual academic workload must not exceed 75 credits totally.
- 7<sup>1</sup>. Within the one-step educational program of medicine, an individual student's curriculum may set an annual workload of more than 60 credits, but the total number of credits added above 60 within the duration of the program should not exceed 15 credits in total. (01-133, 11.12.2020)
8. An academic year is calculated for 38 weeks, including lectures, final and additional exams.
9. Lectures are conducted for 15 weeks, including classes within the framework of an academic course (lectures-seminars, practical and laboratory classes, midterm examination, consultations, presentations, etc.)
10. An academic year comprises two terms. One term lasts for 19 weeks, in which 15 weeks are allocated for classes and mid-term examinations, 3 weeks for final examinations and 1 week for additional examinations.
11. Academic personnel and visiting lecturers teach and evaluate students on the basis of relevant educational programme and syllabus.

12. University signs agreements with relevant companies operating in the corresponding field in Georgian market and representatives of international organizations in order practical components within the educational programme to be better assimilated by students.
13. Students shall be grouped according to the faculties, educational programmes and chosen academic courses. No more than 40 and no less than 15 students can register in a group, except for the groups for practical studies, in which teaching more than 10-15 students is not appropriate. Depending on the specifics of the educational program, it is possible to create groups with a relatively smaller number of students, in accordance with the workload of the university's academic staff. (01-120, 02.10.2023)

Article 7. Individual Schedule for Students

1. University ensures creating special educational environment via elaborating an individual educational schedule taking students’ various requirements, needs and academic preparation into consideration.
2. Individual educational schedule aims at ensuring uninterrupted involvement of students with special educational needs in academic process, providing them with equal opportunities for receiving education and creating an accessible educational environment for them.
3. Identification of students with individual curriculum needs is carried out on the basis of Unified National Exams and analysis of completed questionnaires of students enrolled in the mobility rule and individual requests of students. Students indicate special educational needs and limitations in the registration form. This information is collected by the Student Services Office, and the Academic Process Management Office coordinates appropriate support measures with faculty involvement. Students’ individual educational schedule is elaborated by Programme Supervisor after interviewing students and reviewing student’s individual educational card. Afterwards, the academic process and teaching methods adapted to their needs are planned. (01-32, 27.03.2024)
4. The development of an individual study plan for the student is provided by the head of the program after interviewing the student, reviewing the student's individual study card, as a result of which a study process and teaching methods tailored to their needs are planned. (01-32, 27.03.2024)
- 4<sup>1</sup>. head of the program ensures the definition of a study schedule adapted to the students with a non-standard schedule of activities, as well as those involved in sports, cultural, artistic, intellectual and/or creative activities. (01-32, 27.03.2024)

Chapter III Evaluation System

Article 8. General Description of Students' Knowledge Evaluation

1. European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) is used by University in order academic activity to be depicted for each student necessary for achieving programme objectives.
2. Students' knowledge evaluation system within the framework of the university educational programmes is elaborated in accordance with requirements under the order #3 (January 5, 2007) issued by Minister of Education and Science of Georgia – "Credit Calculation Regulation for Programmes of Higher Education".

Article 9. Student Evaluation

1. Credits can be accumulated by achieving learning outcomes within the framework of curricula, with one of the positive assessments approved by the order #3 (January 5, 2007) issued by Minister of Education and Science of Georgia - "Regulation for Credit Calculation for Higher Educational Programmes", Article 4.7. Sub-paragraph "a".
2. Evaluating students' achievements on a single basis - only through final examination is prohibited.
3. The evaluation of the work carried out by a student during the course must include:
  - a) Intermediate assessments – 40 points;
  - b) Mid-term examination – 20 points;
  - c) Final examination – 40 points.
- 3<sup>1</sup>. At the discretion of the program administrators, student grades may be in a different ratio, but the final grade may not be more than 40% or less than 30% of the overall grade. (01-120, 02.10.2023)
4. Professors, implementing academic course/courses/educational programme, are entitled to divide 60/70 points (intermediate assessment) into evaluation components individually, determine the dates for course and final project maintenance and thesis presentations, conclude the number of mid-term examinations.
5. Students are evaluated per term according to the components presented in the provision.
6. A maximum point for evaluating learning outcomes is 100 points.
7. University evaluation system includes five kinds of positive and two kinds of negative assessments.
8. Positive assessments include:
  - a) (A) Excellent - 91–100 points;
  - b) (B) Very good - 81–90 points;
  - c) (C) Good - 71–80 points;
  - d) (D) Satisfactory - 61–70 points;
  - e) (E) Sufficient - 51–60 points; (01-56, 04.06.2024)
9. Negative assessments include:
  - a) (FX) Did not pass– 41–50 points; The student needs to work harder to pass the examination and is allowed to take an additional exam after working independently.
  - b) (F) Failed – 40 points or less; The work accomplished by the student is not sufficient and he/she must take a course anew. (01-56, 04.06.2024)
10. University is entitled to introduce additional „-“, and „+“ grades for better understanding of achievements by each student within the number of points determined by ECTS system.
11. Students are evaluated during the whole term. Correspondingly, students' final assessment is the sum of intermediate evaluation and an assessment of the final examination.

12. The student, missing more than half classes of any educational component because of unreasonable grounds, will not be admitted to the final exam by the decision of the lecturer. (01-24, 11.03.2022, 01-137, 08.11.2024)
13. Maximum assessment for a final examination is 30/40 points. A final examination is considered to be passed in case a student receives minimum 16 points. With the recommendation elaborated by Faculty Council and under Rector's order, a higher limit may be determined for specific educational programme(s), but no more than 60% of the examination points. (01-75, 02.07.2018)
14. The remaining 60-70- points are distributed according to intermediate assessment in accordance with the syllabi.
15. Students retake final examinations in the same term. Additional examinations can be conducted in no less than 5 days after the results of final examination are declared.
16. Removed (01-137, 08.11.2024)
17. A student, having accumulated minimum 25 points through interim evaluation, is entitled to take a final examination. With the recommendation elaborated by Faculty Council and under Rector's order, a higher limit may be determined for specific educational programme(s), but no more 60% of the maximum points of interim assessments. (01-75, 02.07.2018)
18. Students are entitled to protest results of a midterm/final examination to Appeal Commission of the Faculty in a written form in 2 days after becoming familiar with the results. When the marks are inserted in the electronic academic management system this point is considered as becoming familiar with the results. The Appeal Commission is obliged to review protests by communicating with the evaluator of the paper within 3 working days and make relevant decisions – the refusal for satisfaction of the complaint due to the groundless of the statement or submitting the examination paper to another professor for re-evaluation. In case of more than 10% difference in the assessment on the basis of the re-evaluation, the examination paper is submitted to the third marker. On the basis of the results, the commission makes a decision to adjust the point applying arithmetic average. The decision made by the Appeal Commission is final and cannot be appealed. (01-111, 20.09.2018) (01-120, 02.10.2023)
19. A student can take an additional examination in case:
  - he/she has accumulated 41-51 points via intermediate assessment and final examination;
  - he/she has accumulated 51 points or more via intermediate assessment and final examination, but could not pass the minimum limit of final examination;
  - he/she missed the examination because of a reasonable excuse, presented relevant evidence and received Dean's consent. In this case, the number of points accumulated by the student should not be less than 25. (01-05, 12.01.2024)
20. The student, missing a mid-term examination because of a reasonable excuse and presenting a statement with relevant proof in two weeks' time after the completion of the examinations, is entitled to take the mid-term examination in case of Dean's consent. Mid-term examination is retaken during the 14th week after the start of studies. (01-162, 16.11.2018)
21. Serious illness, death of family member, working in State Law Enforcement Agencies, natural disasters or emergency situations are considered as reasonable excuses for the present regulation. (On the part of the students, the verification of the medical certificate - Form No. 100 attached to the application for the resumption of the exam will be carried out on a random basis, 10 certificates from the number presented at each faculty.) (01-05, 12.01.2024)
- 21<sup>1</sup>. If the student cannot provide any evidence of a good reason, but writes a statement detailing the reason for missing the exam, the dean has the discretionary right to allow the student to retake the exam even without any good reason. For this, the dean writes a reasoned explanation to the student's application and sends the relevant information to the examination center. (01-05, 12.01.2024)
22. Students' final assessments are put in the electronic base of academic process management and subject roster (register) printed out according to the groups. The roster is signed by the professor/visiting lecturer implementing the academic course and transferred to Student Service Center in no later than 2 weeks after the term finishes. In practical/clinical subjects, a scanned version of the roster can be forwarded to the Faculty Dean/Programme Head. (01-98, 19.07.2023)
- 22<sup>1</sup>. In the clinical module training courses at the Faculty of Medicine, an independent roster is created for each component of the module, which is signed by the professor/guest lecturer implementing the respective component. Taking into account the source data of each component of the clinical module, the single roster of the module is signed by the program coordinator and the dean of the faculty. (01-98, 19.07.2023)

23. In case the roster is not signed by the professor/visiting lecturer within 1 month after completing examinations, it is signed by the Programme Supervisor after receiving confirmation from the Professor (GONI or e-mail) on the basis of the data available in Academic Process Management Electronic System or inquiry in case of necessity.
24. The level of students' academic performance is determined by the scores obtained in academic courses as well as the equivalent of these scores – Grade Point Average (GPA).
25. GPA for any academic course is calculated using the formula:  $GPA = (X-50) \times 0,06 + 1$ , in which X is the score received in an academic course.

| GPA Calculation Rule |  |
|-----------------------------|--|
| Numerical Equivalent | Point                               |
| 100                  | 4                                   |
| 99                   | 3.94                                |
| 98                   | 3.88                                |
| 97                   | 3.82                                |
| X                    | <math>(X-50) \times 0,06 + 1</math> |
| 51                   | 1,06                                |
| 1-50                 | 0                                   |

26. GPA – is calculated only for the academic courses in which students got positive assessments (A,B,C,D,E). FX and F assessments equal to 0 in GPA Calculation. Students' term GPA is calculated to get rating data, while the negative assessments will be summed up.
27. Students' conclusive average academic assessment in any interval of the academic process is calculated using the formula:  $GPA \text{ (conclusive)} = (\sum \text{GPA of each academic course} \times \text{relevant credit}) / \text{sum of credits of every academic course}$ .
28. At the doctoral level, the student is evaluated according to the principles of this rule, unless a different evaluation system is defined by the "Dissertation Council and Doctoral Regulations" and the doctoral program. (01-32, 27.03.2024)

Article 10. Intensive Courses

1. In case of enough number of willing students (3-5 students depending on the specificity of the subject), university conducts an intensive course of the corresponding subject. Students are entitled to take intensive courses in the following cases:
  - a) He/she received negative assessment (failed) last term(s);
  - b) A student, enrolled within the framework of mobility and the one with restored student status who has not taken the specific subject and it prevents him/her to choose other academic courses in the following terms;
  - c) A student needs to take the specific academic course due to the individual educational schedule.
2. An intensive course is a part of a term and is conducted after final exams within 3,5 weeks
3. Students are entitled to take subject(s) correlating to no more than 7 credits within the framework of an intensive course.
4. Every academic workload provided in the curricula is conducted within an intensive course.
5. An intensive course is conducted via students' self-financing.
6. With the requirement of students' group, an academic course not envisaged in the curriculum in the current term may be delivered during the whole term (a parallel course).
7. The decision on conducting intensive and parallel courses is made by Rector in accordance with the requirement received from Faculty.
- 7<sup>1</sup>. The dean's office will select a lecturer (academic staff or guest lecturer) as the head of the intensive course who did not teach this subject in a particular semester. (01-11, 01.02.2023)

8. Tuition fee for an intensive course is calculated in compliance with the number of credits for an academic course. The cost of one credit for the programmes with Georgian as a language of instruction is 65 GEL, as for the programmes with a foreign language as a language of instruction, the cost is - 80 USD equivalent to GEL.
